LOCAL NEWS

Body found hanging from bridge over US-29 outside Reidsville

Police say a dead person was found hanging from Mizpah Church Rd. bridge that goes over US 29

Author: Chris Venzon (WFMY News2)
Published: 11:19 AM EST February 23, 2021
Updated: 2:09 PM EST February 23, 2021

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY, N.C. — Traffic Update: All roads reopened for traffic at 11 a.m. The scene at this time is clear.

A body was found hanging from the Mizpah Church Rd. bridge over US-29 outside Reidsville on Tuesday morning, the Rockingham County Sheriff's Office said.

Traffic in both directions of US-29 has been detoured as the Rockingham County Sheriff's Office conducts its investigation. An RCSO official said people should expect the road to closed for a few hours.

According to deputies, someone traveling on US-29 dialed 911 after spotting the body hanging over the highway at around 7:30 a.m. Tuesday.

After further investigation, deputies believe the case is a suicide.

The identity of the victim at this time has not been released.

No further information was released. More details will be published as they become available.

Related Articles

Third stimulus check update: House Budget committee advances COVID-19 relief bill

Expensive water bills, but no leaks: News 2 helps Greensboro woman plug the problem

Missing Davidson County teen found at motel, accused kidnapper arrested

Video unavailable

Playback on other websites has been disabled by the video owner

Watch on YouTube